

Eve Dery Hodnett

Chief Legal Officer and General Counsel

Eve was appointed Chief Legal Officer and General Counsel of Grass Valley in 2020 and is responsible for all worldwide legal management. She first began providing legal assistance for the Grass Valley business in 2003 as Associate General Counsel at Technicolor. As Grass Valley has grown and changed, Eve has grown professionally as well and assumed greater responsibilities as Vice President, Legal, Worldwide Contracts and Licensing; Vice President Legal, Corporate Secretary and now as the head of the worldwide Grass Valley Legal Department.

Eve has over 30 years of experience as a lawyer. She spent a large portion of her early career as an in-house banking lawyer—first at Glendale Federal Bank and then City National Bank in Beverly Hills where she litigated major fraud cases, designed an environmental policy and negotiated real estate, asset and entertainment loans. From there she moved into supporting the dietary supplement business where she switched to being a business lawyer and general counsel.

She received her bachelor's degree in English at the University of California Santa Barbara and her law degree at Pepperdine University, School of Law.

Her goal as Vice President Legal is to facilitate commerce. She enjoys helping to make deals happen while minimizing risk. Her entire team prides itself on being effective and commercially sensitive.
