

Tim Ordaz

Chief Information Officer

Tim was appointed Chief Information Officer in September of 2020, after successfully leading the Services and Support organization since 2016. Tim's career at Grass Valley started in 2004 and he has played a key role within the company as Vice President, Services and Support, Americas. Tim has held several global roles during his tenure and has contributed immensely in improving customer engagement.

Tim joined Grass Valley as a quota-carrying sales person for support agreements. He eventually led the Services Sales and Marketing teams in the US, EMEA, and APAC before taking over leadership of Global Services in the former Grass Valley. Prior to Grass Valley he spent a number of years working in broadcast technology and operations at DirecTV, a local TV station, Alamar Automation, and Pinnacle Systems.

Tim holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in business management from Saint Mary's College of California.
